PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Perich Eye Center - 2017 till Present At Perich Eye Center, I act mainly as a comprehensive ophthalmologist with approximately 50% of my practice dedicated to medical retina, becoming the primary injector of the practice over the past four years. At Perich Eye, I run a retina clinic one day per week in The Villages, one day per week in Wesley Chapel and one afternoon per week in Tampa. The rest of my practice is dedicated to comprehensive ophthalmology from the ages of 5 years old and on. I am also an attending physician/associate professor for USF Ophthalmology/HCA West Florida in medical retina and comprehensive ophthalmology.

Advent Health Hospital Staff Ophthalmologist – 2018-present. I am currently one of five ophthalmologists that cover the Advent Health Hospital system for the West Coast of Florida. Our current responsibility covers 18 hospitals from Tampa to Sebring with Tampa acting as the tertiary care center.

USF Morsani College of Medicine/HCA West Florida 2019 till present- Associate professor/attending – Medical Retina/Comprehensive Ophthalmology.
